

C. Family Matters

1. Child Support. Until October 1, 2020, judges shall give priority to the following child support matters:
  - a. Cases that are determining paternity;
  - b. Cases establishing initial child support;
  - c. Cases that are being reopened; and
  - d. Cases in which the obligee's only financial support is income from employment or unemployment benefits, maintenance support, non public benefits or child support.

All other child support matters shall be continued until after October 1, 2020, unless a judge determines in his or her discretion that a matter requires prompt attention.
